

INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

EVENTS AND TRAININGS

LEGISLATIVE WATCH

IN THE NEWS

FEBRUARY IS ECSTASY
AWARENESS MONTH

Our February PSA is now available on our web site.

Courtesy of colleagues across Indiana, more prevention events are posted on our web site.

Check it all out at www.drugs.indiana.edu

EVENTS AND TRAININGS

March 24, 2004 INDIANAPOLIS - We Care America and SAMHSA will be offering a grant writing workshop for faith-based and community organizations. To register or receive more information, visit <http://www.wecareamerica.org/SAMHSA/indiana.html> or visit the IPRC's calendar at: <http://www.drugs.indiana.edu/calendar>.

April 13 – 16, 2004 BLOOMINGTON – The Indiana Prevention Resource Center will be hosting its annual Program Planning and Proposal Writing workshop. Visit <http://www.drugs.indiana.edu/calendar> to register, today!

APRIL 20, 2004 JEFFERSONVILLE - Southern Indiana Drug Prevention Conference “Legal Yet Lethal”. Isabel Burk, M.S., C.P.P., C.H.E.S. and Burns Brady, M.D. as well as other prevention professional as will be addressing issues of prescription drug use, the ease of becoming addicted, emerging drug trends and dangers, physiological impact (short and long term) of different types of legal drugs, the relationship of abuse and mental health issues, the role of parents and caring adults as prevention partners, and pharmaceutical and insurance issues. Visit the IPRC's web site at <http://www.drugs.indiana.edu/calendar>, for conference registration form.

LEGISLATIVE WATCH

Southwest Legislative Report (02-18-04), submitted by Steven R. King, Southwest Regional Manager, Governor's Commission for a Drug-Free Indiana.

The 113th Indiana General Assembly, Second Session, has revised its schedule for the remainder of the session. All dates have been moved forward.

Proposed schedule for rest of session:

February 19 - Committee Reports
February 26 - Third Reading

February 25 - Second Reading
March 5 - Sine Die

All dates are subject to change.

IN THE NEWS

Receive drug-related information from the most trusted source – SAMHSA at <http://www.health.org/newsroom>.